

1. Bachelor of Commerce (B.Com.)

Course Outcomes (COs)

CO1: Demonstrate comprehensive knowledge of accounting, finance, taxation, business law, economics, and management principles to understand the functioning of business organizations.

CO2: Apply accounting techniques, financial tools, and quantitative methods to analyse business transactions and support informed managerial decision-making.

CO3: Evaluate financial statements, taxation systems, and business regulations to solve contemporary commercial and organizational problems.

CO4: Develop professional competence, ethical values, communication skills, and digital proficiency required for careers in commerce, banking, finance, and entrepreneurship.

CO5: Integrate theoretical knowledge with practical applications to pursue higher education, professional certifications, research, and lifelong learning in commerce and allied disciplines.

Career Opportunities

Graduates of the Bachelor of Commerce programme are equipped with a strong foundation in accounting, finance, taxation, business management, and commerce, enabling them to pursue careers in corporate, financial, banking, government, and entrepreneurial sectors.

Career opportunities include:

- Accountant
- Accounts Executive
- Financial Analyst
- Tax Consultant / GST Executive
- Audit Assistant
- Banking Officer / Probationary Officer
- Insurance Executive
- Investment Associate
- Credit Analyst
- Payroll Executive
- Business Development Executive
- Financial Services Associate
- Stock Market Analyst
- Retail Banking Executive
- Entrepreneur / Start-up Founder
- Government Services (SSC, Banking, UPSC, State PSC, Railways)
- Higher Studies (M.Com., MBA, CA, CMA, CS, ACCA, CFA, Ph.D.)