

5. Bachelor of Commerce (Honours)

Course Outcomes (COs)

CO1: Demonstrate advanced knowledge of financial accounting, corporate finance, auditing, taxation, business law, economics, and strategic management.

CO2: Apply analytical, quantitative, and financial techniques to evaluate complex business problems and formulate evidence-based solutions.

CO3: Analyse corporate financial reports, legal frameworks, taxation systems, and economic policies to support strategic business decision-making.

CO4: Demonstrate professional ethics, research aptitude, leadership qualities, digital competencies, and effective communication required in corporate and academic environments.

CO5: Integrate advanced theoretical concepts with practical applications to pursue professional qualifications, research, entrepreneurship, and leadership roles in commerce and allied sectors.

Career Opportunities

The B.Com. (Honours) programme provides advanced academic and professional preparation in commerce, accounting, finance, taxation, corporate governance, and business analytics, making graduates highly competitive for professional qualifications and leadership roles.

Career opportunities include:

- Chartered Accountant (CA) (after qualification)
- Cost & Management Accountant (CMA)
- Company Secretary (CS)
- Certified Public Accountant (CPA)
- Financial Analyst
- Investment Banker
- Corporate Finance Executive
- Tax Consultant
- Internal Auditor
- Risk Analyst
- Financial Planning & Wealth Management Advisor
- Equity Research Analyst
- Business Consultant
- Corporate Compliance Officer
- Banking & Financial Services Officer
- Research Associate